Theme of Poem:

love is tuff

Evidence: I fingered a nickel in my pocket. And when she lifted a chocolate that cost a dime, I didn't say anything.

Interpretation: This shows how love is tuff because he is nervous, scared, and shy to tell her that he does not have the money for the chocolate.

Evidence: I took the nickel from my pocket, then an orange and set them quickly on the counter. When I looked up the lady's eyes met mine and held them, knowing very well what it was all about.

Interpretation: This shows how love is tuff because he really likes this girl a lot and he wants to impress her even though he doesn't have the money but he is taking chances. He wants to

Evidence:

Interpretation: Show this girl that he really loves her so he will take any chances to get her that chocolate.
